John Barnes, CTO of Model Metrics, to Present at Kaufman Bros. Cloud Computing II Conference May 26

CHICAGO – May 25, 2010 – Model Metrics, the leader in cloud computing services for the enterprise, today announced that John Barnes, the company’s Chief Technology Officer, will present at Kaufman Bros.’ Cloud Computing II Conference on May 26 in New York City.

Mr. Barnes will address the topic of SaaS Consulting and Implementation as part of a panel moderated by Karl Keirstead, Kaufman Bros.’ Senior IT Services & Software Analyst.

The all-day conference at the W Hotel in Manhattan includes panel discussions and presentations from senior executives at corporations including longtime Model Metrics’ partner salesforce.com, Intel Corp., Rackspace Hosting, SuccessFactors, Terremark Worldwide and others.

John Barnes is a frequent presenter at technology conferences and trade shows and has recently spoken at Dreamforce – salesforce.com’s annual user conference, CloudConnect, and various Amazon and Adobe events.

Founded in 1995, Kaufman Bros. is the country’s largest minority owned and operated investment banking and advisory firm focused on technology, media, telecom (TMT), green technology and healthcare.
